

KAJU

We chose the name Kaju because it's short, easy, and tempting, just like the feeling of desire. Everyone has craved kaju at some point in life. It's small, curvy, and irresistible. You taste one, and instantly you want more. That's exactly how intimacy should feel.

Kaju is also food for energy and a natural booster. Just like kaju gives strength and keeps you going, our brand is here to boost your sex life, your confidence, and your intimate energy.

So when you think of Kaju, don't just think of a nut, think of something catchy, tempting, full of desire, and a vibe that keeps you energized.

Kaju = Desire. Energy. Pleasure.

Come Again !

When you read it, it feels simple and friendly, an invitation to come to our shop again, enjoy life, and keep exploring with us.

But when you hear it, it teases your senses, it puts you in the mood, makes you smile, and reminds you of the pleasure of cumming again.

That playful double meaning is our magic: it tempts you both ways. You'll want to cum again in your intimate life, and you'll want to Come Again to us, for more products, more fun, more energy.

Come Again = Where shopping feels sexy, and intimacy feels like shopping.

At first glance, it's just drops of water, fresh, pure, and full of energy. But look deeper, and it speaks in double meaning. It's the wetness when desire takes over, the playful signal that you're in the mood.

This duality is exactly what our brand stands for:

- Freshness like water, pure, vital, and energizing.
- Sexual energy is like wetness, powerful, tempting, and irresistible.

The drops are simple yet bold. They remind you of freshness, hydration, life itself, and at the same time, they whisper of intimacy, passion, and pleasure.

So, our logo isn't just a symbol; it's a vibe: fresh, sexy, and powerful enough to make you wet.
